A red circled employee shall be defined as a member of the Bargaining Unit whose wage rate is frozen at a rate that is currently higher than the rate set forth by this Agreement. When a contract is renewed for that employee, and the contract immediately follows the previous higher rate contract, and the nature of the assignment is identical to the previous assignment, that employee shall maintain their current red-circled rate. Red circled employees shall remain at their current red-circled wage rate until the wage rate for the classification reaches or surpasses their current red-circled rate, they accept a new different assignment, or they have a break in employment of one month or more.
